Chronicle and Redacted

Simple documentation of any history, in the order in which it occurred, will tell one story. However, another truth always lies buried within the voice of the storyteller, and the omissions will uncover even more.

Chronicle™ and Redacted™ reveal that what we choose to include and how we arrange things can transform the result. For example, Chronicle draws complex lines at lively angles that record the many and varied paths any story or design might take. While Redacted is far more restrained, minimizing the most dramatic parts and organizing the threads into an orderly adaptation of the same elements. Combined together, a blend of drama and restraint might be where your story unfolds. We're listening...

Chronicle and Redacted are offered in a shared palette of twelve colorways, made with Bentley Premium™ Nylon. Both are available in all our formats and backing systems, including Broadloom, Tile, and EliteFlex™ 6 ft Cushion. And, as always, every Bentley carpet product is 100% PVC-free.
