Suitable

A black suit for a formal affair, a seersucker suit for the summer or a wetsuit for the water; one could wear any of these at any given time, but wear a wetsuit to a wedding and it just might be frowned upon. Each of these options were fabricated specifically for a particular purpose or event and definitely not meant to be worn at all times. However, every once in a while, we come across that perfect ensemble that becomes our proverbial uniform for any occasion. Dress it up. Dress it down. It's always the most suitable choice.

Inspired by this scenario, Bentley's Suitable product just happens to be that flexible offering for a wide variety of installations. Whether you need a product for corporate offices, education spaces, quick turnaround jobs or projects that need to conform to a tight budget, you'll be happy to know that Suitable will always be just the right fit.
